

Please don't remove the traffic and weather channels. This is the first time in history that we actually have something that works. Please don't blow it. If the NAB could get the act together and do their job right, then it wouldn't matter. Until then there is no reason to remove these stations from digital radio.